

Privacy Notice

Introduction

We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal data. This Privacy Notice will inform you as to how we look after your personal data when you visit our website and tell you about your privacy rights and how the law protects you, and sets out the information that we must provide to you for the purpose of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (“GDPR”) which is applicable as of 25 May 2018 and the law providing for the protection of natural persons with regards to the processing of personal data and for free movement of such data (Law 125(I) /2018).

Important information and who we are

Purpose

This Privacy Notice aims to give you information on how we collect and process your personal data through your use of this website.

It is important that you read this Privacy Notice together with any other Privacy Notice or fair processing policy we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This Privacy Notice supplements other notices and privacy policies and is not intended to override them. We keep our Privacy Notice under regular review. The new version of this policy will be available on the Company’s website.

Exness Global Limited, a Cyprus registered company, registration number 326879, with its registered office at 1 Siafi, Porto Bello, Office 401, 3042, Limassol, Cyprus, is the controller and responsible for this site and your personal data (collectively referred to as "Company", "we", "us" or "our" in this Privacy Notice).

We have appointed a data privacy team who is responsible for overseeing questions in relation to this Privacy Notice.

If you have any questions about this Privacy Notice, including any requests to exercise your legal rights please contact our data privacy team at dataprotection@exness.eu.

The data we collect about you

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

During your use of the website, we may collect, use, store and transfer some technical data about you including internet protocol (IP) address, your login data, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform, and other technology on the devices you use to access this website and usage data includes information about how you use our website. If you send us an inquiry or you would like us to communicate with you, we may collect, use, store and transfer some contact and identity information (like name, surname, email address) in order to provide you with the response or act on your request.

How your personal data is collected

As you interact with our website, we will automatically collect technical data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns, upon your consent. We collect this personal data by using cookies [server logs] and other similar technologies. Please see our Cookie Policy for further details.

How we use your personal data

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal data in the following circumstances:

- Where we need to perform the contract under the terms and conditions, we are about to enter into or have entered into with you.
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.
- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation.

- Where we require your consent.

By reading and agreeing to this Privacy Notice, you are giving us permission to process your personal data specifically for the purposes identified.

Where our use of your personal information does not fall under one of the three Lawful bases above we require your consent. Such consent shall be freely given by you and you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us using the contact details set out in this Privacy Notice.

Purposes for which we will use your personal data

We have set out below, a description of all the ways we plan to use your personal data, and which of the legal bases we rely on to do so. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are where appropriate.

Note that we may process your personal data for more than one lawful grounds depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data.

Marketing and communication

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising.

Cookies

You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this website may become inaccessible or not function properly. For more information about the cookies we use, please see Cookie policy.

Change of purpose

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose.

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

Disclosures of your personal data

We will only share your personal data with any member of our group (together “Exness companies”). We require our member’s entities who handle or obtain personal information to acknowledge the confidentiality of this information, undertake to respect any individual’s right to privacy and comply with all relevant data protection laws and this privacy notice.

We may pass your personal data on to third-party service and software providers contracted to Exness Global Limited in the course of dealing with you. We endeavor to disclose to these third parties only the minimum personal data that is required to perform their contractual obligations to us. We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

International transfers

As Exness operates a business internationally, we may transfer your personal data outside the European Economic Area (the “EEA”) to other Exness companies and software service providers. For example, your personal information may be processed by staff in the Exness companies operating outside the EEA. To the extent we transfer your personal information outside the EEA, we will ensure that the transfer is lawful and that there are appropriate security arrangements in place. Moreover, we will ensure that the processors in third countries are obliged to comply with the European data protection laws or other countries’ laws which are comparable and to provide appropriate safeguards in relation to the transfer of your data in accordance with the provision of the GDPR.

Data security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

Data retention

We will only retain your personal data for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected for, including the purpose of satisfying any legal, accounting or reporting requirements. To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider among others, the amount, nature and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or other requirements.

We may retain your personal data for a longer period in the event of a complaint or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation in respect to our relationship with you. Details of retention periods for different aspects of your personal data are available in our retention policy which you can request from us by contacting us. In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data: see [your legal rights] below for further information.

In some circumstances we will anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes, in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

Your legal rights

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data. Please click on the links below to find out more about these rights:

- Request access to your personal data: you have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you

- Request correction of your personal data: you have a right to correct data that we hold about you that is inaccurate or incomplete
- Request erasure of your personal data: in certain circumstances you can ask for the data we hold about you to be erased from our records
- Object to processing of your personal data: you have the right to object to certain types of processing such as direct marketing, automated processing and profiling
- Request restriction of processing your personal data: where certain conditions apply to have a right to restrict the processing
- Request transfer of your personal data: you have the right to have the data we hold about you transferred to another organisation
- Right to withdraw consent: where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact us at dataprotection@exness.eu.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

Time limit to respond

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within one month. Occasionally it could take us longer than a month if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.
